39	1 Bee Basket* with old Iron	00	74 <sup>1</sup> / <sub>4</sub>
----	------------------------------------	----	--------------------------------

**German farmers typically made coiled rye straw baskets to house their bees – in the classic conical shape we associate with bee hives today.*

40	1 Wode Dich* with do*	00	50
----	-------------------------------------	----	----

\"Wode" is an "interesting" way to spell "wood."
"Dich" is probably "dish." "Do" means ditto.*

41	4 Pair Of Hems* & hand Iron	00	12 <sup>1</sup> / <sub>2</sub>
----	------------------------------------	----	--------------------------------

\"Hems" means "hames," the halves of a horse collar in a plowing harness.*

42	1 Doubletree* Snead* & old Iron	00	25

\"A doubletree" is a hitch for two horses. A "snead" may be a sned: See No. 71.*

69	1 Thribbletree* & Swingletree*	00	12 <sup>1</sup> / <sub>2</sub>

**A "thribbletree" is a tripletree, a three-horse hitch.
"Swingletree," or singletree, means a one-horse hitch.*

71	1 Scythe and Sned*	1	25
----	---------------------------	---	----

**A "sned," later called a "snath," or curved scythe handle that makes harvesting easier. It was a fairly new invention in the 1820s.*
